Thank you for this quick turn-around, Wayne. I have some edits and suggested considerations.

Below is a draft email that the HP team developed. We discussed about sending to HQ, to get them working on a few issues that will need to be addressed in resolving the BPRG issue. It would be great if you or I could send to Greg and Dana since we briefed them before sending out letter to the Navy and they concurred with the approach. Please let me know what you think. Thanks.
